Beat me up Ms. Mary!

VOL. 5

What does your keychain say about you? Are you a gamer? A freak? A 16 wheel 2 ton Ice Road Trucker? The answer is yes. Depending on what gear you're dangling off that sweet carabiner. I have never played with toys in my entire life. So maybe our keychains aren't who we are but more so who we want to be. I think the best keychains are fun and cheap. Everyone needs a good laugh in these trying times and why not get it from your keys. But also keys fall, scrape, bump, dump, etc. Why spend REAL money on a keychain if its just gonna break off in a moment when you REALLY are using them keys? Go to the thrift store and get a funny freak for your keys, and thank me later.

1. Champion Stone Skipper Kurt Steiner winding up for a perfect skimmer. I have had some of the best times of my life skipping rocks with my brain turned off.
 2. Answering emails on vacation is wack unless it's like this. 3. A painting by Joseph Yeager. 4. Decayed type study in the skin of a plant. Nature is the best Layer Style. 5. You must be living under a rock if you haven't heard about the titanic submarine implosion. Imagine being imploded. With a Madcatz controller no less! 6. I judge all books by their covers. Sometimes its the only picture you get! This makes me want to cook a stone soup or something. 7. ldk where he came from I just made a weed circle and he appeared. Rude. 8. You can catch me at The Gallery in this parka selling Freeway CDs and State Prop on DVD. 9. Do the bullets also get covered in grass? Nope. No more war. 10. Its all about how you look at it. The glass is half full until you give it a refill. I think about all the things I want to get done and quickly feel overwhelmed. But then I backtrack and break it into small pieces and it seems more doable. The best way to learn is to take that scary leap. 11. The KEEN Jasper is sick and needs a good US release. *When I was a kid I would stare at trees until I saw a face in the leaves. Then I started to only see scary faces. I don't look at trees anymore. LMK if they still have faces.

1. This is what it looks like when you text an emoji out into the world. 2. Paul Frank is still making cool shit by hand. Trying to get some of it this year. 3. I think this is what Mike Kelley's washing machine would look like. 4. Crate painting by Jack Kenna @ken_ay. Wawa hoagies at 4AM held me down throughout my youth. With a lemonade and a tasty cake. 5. Painting by William Darkdrac @psychoudini. I'm such a fan of airbrush and spraypaint artwork and Darkdrac's work has this perfect looseness and humor that comes with the medium. Mr Cartoon just put on a show in LA of all airbrush artists and I hope it comes to New York. OR we get a good book out of it! 6. You're a Wockhardt, Harry. 7. Self doubt has been the biggest hurdle of my 20s. Wondering if I'm working in the right direction, trying to plan and over plan to make sure a project looks legit. But I've gotten better at managing it, mainly through just making work. You can plan and plan and plan but setting aside time to make work is where it all comes together and makes sense. 8. Weird little cunt, aren't you? 9. Beats Bitch. These would hit crazy today. I need to do an eBay dive on these freaks. What can I swap the Beats Pill for? Will report back. 10. The idea of "Original" is complex and tiring. Everything has already been done but "Betcha Can't Do It Like ME!"

7. HIGH ANXIETY

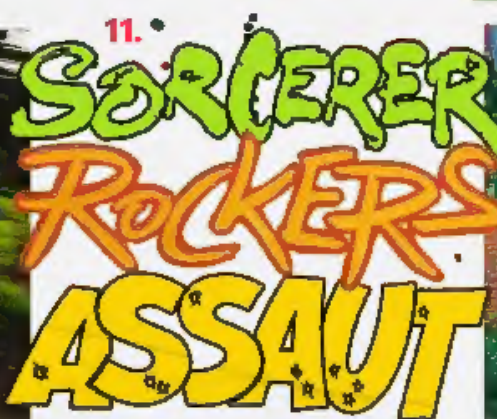

1. I don't miss working manual labor, but I do miss having a pass to wear Carhartt. Mambo Movers Forever. 2. Over the past two years I've gotten way back into wrestling. I'm consuming it at an alarming rate. Right now CM Punk is the favorite in my house, Fuck Seth Rollins. 3. "Armed Frog" by Elliot Bech. The gun is never the answer to a problem. Just tongue em down! 4. Butter Goods has been my favorite brand for a few years now. Their design sensibility is top notch, and they hunt for just the right graphics to rework and bootleg to bring a fresh perspective to every project they work on. Their Mickey Mouse collection made me want to buy Disney gear, what the fuck? 5. They drinking weed and smoking booze! 6. As my toy collection grows I have to get more selective on what I bring home. I'm a sucker for Japanese Vinyl and Mexican Bootlegs but also I love that dumb shit. That goofy googoo silly stuff. "Baby Frog" by Creature Collectors Club is right in that sweet spot. 7. Brain has been working overtime these past.....7 years? But I'm happy to say my anxiety has been way down in the last month. Its nice to see friends or watch a movie or go for a bike ride and not worry for the sake of worrying. 8. Exactly. Most of the time everything is fine. Two frogs in One Influencer? Its All Right. Its Alright too. 9. "Sanrio Pot" by Emily Yong Beck. Art has always been made for the rich to consume, I will become rich to own this baby right here. Also we need a new Katamari Game. 10. Bomber Jackets on the brain again. Whoops. Stussy (left) has made some great ones but Polo (right) stays undefeated. I've said it before and I'll say it again; wearing Polo makes you feel like Superman or 08 Lil Wayne or another synonym for amazing. 11. Jimmy Butler could've been a Sixer but we paid Tobias Harris a truckload of money to be MID. Jimmy will always be my "What if.." player. Could we have gotten a ring? I don't know if the Sixers will ever get a ring. But watching Playoff Jimmy play will always be a highlight of the NBA season.

Wow HMGI Vol. 10! Onety-One! Feeling hopeful in this issue. 1. Original Bliss. I work in a basement most days with no windows. But my desktop can be a window to the outside, it's not bleak. 2. Working on a lot of things ATM both personal and professional. Still learning to juggle it all together and carry all my tools at once. 3. Weird little fucker aren't you? Weird little fucker aren't I? 4. For these between seasons, Betweasons if you will, a light jacket is a must. I've been loving plaid windbreakers. They're a nice color pop and roll up small to fit in your bag. 5. Painting by Alake Shilling @sillyshilli. this makes me so happy every time I look at it. Hopeful for the future. 6. Sometimes it's nice to plant a garden around yourself. Lots of little projects. Learning a new skill. Trying a new recipe from Tiktok. 7. Or you can burn it all down and start anew. But don't torch my soil! 8. I plan on running around just like this little shit all summer. Full stride with a club flailing behind me. Maybe I'll swap a club for a tote bag. Or a big sandwich.... 9. Color palette for the Guardian website. I love the tertiary color breakdowns in this. Zoom in! Use this for your next flyer or painting or drawing! 10. Been back on my bike and it never fails to brighten my day. Hopefully I'll be able to host some group rides this summer without the weather interfering. 11. Good type. Good shit. Illustrated type gets me so stoked. What does the word feel like? What does it convey before you even read the word? Please watch Sorcerer on a rainy night. Watch Rockers whenever. It's on Tubi, the greatest streaming platform for cool movies and hot garbage. 12. Isn't it the greatest gift, to be with the one you love and not say a word? Feeling hopeful for the summer ahead and the rest of the year. I've been on social media less and texting friends more. Sending pics of weird design we see in the world, litter on the ground, trucks and packaging. It's nice to meet folks who see the world the same way you do. And your friends always appreciate when you send them a message, or an emoji filled text about a current event.
